

05. Rodeo

Pack my back and saddle my horse cause I don't wanna die in this godforsaken town, you do if you don't try – but I'm doin' fine

I've been told there no chance out there to survive just stay here where all is safe, even a long life – I said are you afraid to go? you are afraid to go. you are scared to go! for the rodeo

I follow my distinction, uncontrollable to get up and go a personal ignition, an unknown feeling I want to know

I wanna shake it, I wanna make it, a new force on the rise the earth is quaking, while I'm forsaking cause I'm demonized

I don't have to ask for permission, if I want I'm gonna do it is my own decision, and it's just for me and not for you

I gonna shake it, I gonna make it, I need no advise the earth is quaking, I'm overtaking, I am demonized here I go, for a rodeo, here I go for a rodeo here I go, for a rodeo, here I go for a rodeo

this is my proposition, your own circle will never grow in your selfmade inquisition, you always fear what you don't know

I'm shaking, I am making, I'm killing your lies, the earth is quaking, I am uptaking that I am demonized

here I go, for a rodeo, here I go for a rodeo
here I go, for a rodeo, here I go for a rodeo
